

Motels, Inns & Restaurants near Camp Betsey Cox and Camp Sangamon

The Rutland/Killington area is a great place to stay overnight. The area has gorgeous mountains, good restaurants, and nice places to stay. They're available at good rates because you're coming out-of-season. All are within a twenty-minute drive from camp. Many give a discount to Camp families. Please don't hesitate to ask. Overnight visits are all subject to Covid-19 guidance by Vermont Department of Health (<https://www.healthvermont.gov/covid-19/travel-quarantine>). There are currently no state travel restrictions except for mandatory face coverings on public transportation.

The Inn at Long Trail – Route 4, top of the mountain. A great little historic inn with an Irish Pub connected, and live Irish music on the weekends. Good hiking and restaurants nearby. It's a nice Bed and Breakfast Inn. With a good in-house restaurant. Dogs can come if you pay for a suite. Killington, VT 802-775 7181 www.innatlongtrail.com

Brandon Inn-. Note from the owners- Joel and Darcy MacClaren: "We had a lot of "camp" parents stay with us last summer and thank you. The Brandon Inn serves as a home away from home for families - with our beautiful back yard swimming pool and delightful access to restaurants in town. We have put together a special package to share with your families: "Receive a 20% discount on a two-night stay Friday and Saturday nights when bringing your child to a Vermont camp - discounted rate is available from June 25 through August 28." Prior to arrival and when making the reservation use the special code CAMP." www.brandoninn.com

Opinionated review of Restaurants

Killington Mountain Access Road– Choices (1st class dinner) chef-owned, and it shows. Big city-quality food at Vermont prices. The Foundry (lunch/dinner on the deck). Mother Shapiro's (good bistro & late night food.) Sugar and Spice and Johnny Boys-Great breakfast both on Rt 4. Sugar and Spice is a pancake house with VT maple syrup! Downtown Rutland: Vermont Tap House: brick oven pizza, pasta, appetizers Rt 7, south from Camp. Gill's Italian Sandwich shop – worth the trip for lunch –near Rutland Dunkin Donuts, Route 7 south...ask directions. Sewards for ice cream, Rt 7, 10 minutes south of camp. Village Snack Bar Rt 4 Business – eat outside or in, snack bar food and ice cream. Roots-downtown Rutland on Wales Street- lots of vegetarian/special diet choices, local food, local flair. Table 24- Wales Street, homestyle meals and comfort food. Fun ambience. Ramunto's-Pizza and delish garlic knots. Located on Rt 7 south near Gils.

Pittsford: The Cluckin' Cafe is just a short ways NORTH on Route 7 towards Pittsford. As of this writing, they offer breakfast and lunch Saturday and Sunday. It's a fried-chicken joint! Delicious!
Brandon: 15 minutes north on Route 7. Café Provence- French inspired cuisine by a former executive chef of the New England Culinary Institute. Award-winning breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Bakery just down from the restaurant! Superb!

We hope this is helpful!
