

Motels, Inns & Restaurants near Camp Betsey Cox and Camp Sangamon

---

The Rutland/Killington area is a great place to stay overnight. The area has gorgeous mountains, good restaurants, and nice places to stay. They're available at good rates because you're coming out-of-season. All are within a twenty-minute drive from camp. Many give a discount to Camp families. Please don't hesitate to ask.

---

The Inn at Long Trail – Route 4, top of the mountain. A great little historic inn with an Irish Pub connected, and live Irish music on the weekends. Good hiking and restaurants nearby. It's a nice Bed and Breakfast Inn. With a good in-house restaurant. Dogs can come if you pay for a suite. Killington, VT 802-775 7181

Brandon Inn- There are new owners at this Inn. However, the previous owners describe their business as follows, and we assume the same arrangements may be in place. It is well worth asking! "We had a lot of "camp" parents stay with us last summer and thank you. The Brandon Inn serves as a home away from home for families - with our beautiful backyard swimming pool and delightful access to restaurants in town. We have put together a special package to share with your families: "Receive a 20% discount on a two-night stay Friday and Saturday nights when bringing your child to a Vermont camp - discounted rate is available from June 25 through August 28." Prior to arrival and when making the reservation use the special code CAMP."

Brandon Motor Lodge- Friendly family run Motor Lodge on R7 just north of camp. Owners, Aaron and Stacey are friends of both Camp Betsey Cox and Camp Sangamon.

Best Western Hogge Penney – Route 4, An upscale version of a Best Western, this one offers affordable rooms and suites, with a small pool, and even tennis courts. There has been a discount for camp families in the past. Do ask! Mendon, VT 802-773 3200

Mountain Top Inn and Resort- Chittenden- Very close to camp overlooking Chittenden Dam, the “wilderness” reservoir that camp uses for canoe overnights and trip days. Upscale. 800 445 2100

Red Clover Inn- Mendon 802 775 2290 Camp discount Inn with B&B feel.

The Vermont Inn – family run inn on Route 4 close to camp. Nice place, with a delicious in-house restaurant. Ask for a camp discount.

Fox Creek Inn- Chittenden 802 483 6213 Cozy Inn close to Camp. Hosts are Rita and Corey Wood. Not far from Chittenden reservoir. Serving breakfast and dinner- picnic lunches can be added and homemade cookies served at 4pm!

Opinionated review of Restaurants: Killington Mountain Access Road– Choices -1st class dinner chef-owned, and it shows. Big city-quality food at Vermont prices. The Foundry -lunch/dinner on the deck and a scoop shop next door. Sugar and Spice and Johnny Boys-Great breakfast both on Rt 4. Sugar and Spice is a pancake house with VT maple syrup! Downtown Rutland: Vermont Tap House: brick oven pizza, pasta, appetizers. Gill's Italian Sandwich shop – worth the trip for lunch Village Snack Bar Rt 4 Business – eat outside or in, snack bar food and ice cream. Roots- downtown Rutland on Wales Street- lots of vegetarian/special diet choices, local food, local flair. Table 24- Wales Street, homestyle meals and comfort food. Fun ambience. Ramunto's Pizza and delish garlic knots. Pittsford: The Cluckin' Cafe- It's a fried-chicken joint! Kamuda's- local country store with a great deli that includes hot meals. Brandon: 15 minutes north on Route 7. Café Provence- French inspired cuisine by a former executive chef of the New England Culinary Institute. Award-winning breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Bakery just down from the restaurant! Superb! Taco and Bean-local Mexican restaurant run by a camp family! Outdoor dining in pleasant Brandon! We hope this is helpful!