Some campers who like a soft bed bring "egg crates"- foam padding. We encourage you to bring a sleeping pad like a Thermarest instead. They last longer and are more versatile! A flat sheet for hot nights can be nice too. Nice to have: swim goggles, camera (no cell phone to use remember!) tennis racket, musical instruments, books, stationary, windbreaker, headlamp- for reading in your bunk, shower caddy to carry toiletries to shower house(can be the same as toiletry bag), bug net recommended, if you are bothered by bugs at night! (see parent information for more details on where to buy a net if you would like) flat sheet to sleep under on warm nights. Definitely NOT! Cell phones; or any internet connection device, other items that you care about which can get broken or lost at camp.
