Opinionated review of Restaurants:

Killington Mountain Access Road– Choices -1st class dinner chef-owned, and it shows. Big city-quality food at Vermont prices. The Foundry -lunch/dinner on the deck and a scoop shop next door.

Sugar and Spice and Johnny Boys-Great breakfast both on Rt 4. Sugar and Spice is a pancake house with VT maple syrup! Downtown Rutland: Vermont Tap House: brick oven pizza, pasta, appetizers.

Gill's Italian Sandwich shop – worth the trip for lunch Village Snack Bar Rt 4 Business – eat outside or in, snack bar food and ice cream. Roots- downtown Rutland on Wales Street- lots of vegetarian/special diet choices, local food, local flair. Ramunto's Pizza and delish garlic knots. Taco Fresco: Good Mexican food right here in Rutland! Pittsford: The Cluckin' Cafe- It's a fried-chicken joint!

Kamuda's- local country store with a great deli that includes hot meals. Brandon: 15 minutes north on Route 7. Café Provence- French inspired cuisine by a former executive chef of the New England Culinary Institute. Award-winning breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Morningside Bakery is excellent and makes food for all three meals! Outside picnic tables nearby Superb!

We hope this is helpful!
